

I am opposed of the FCC considering lowering its standards on television. Nudity and vial language should be intolerable. Children are watching as well as millions of Americans that want entertainment without nudity and foul language. God's judgment is falling hard and fast on this Country. I am urging the FCC to uphold high decency standards in entertainment in order to protect America's children and families. The FCC is responsible for the Wickedness they allow American families to see.